As the year comes to a quick close, I have been thinking of all the astonishing support we have had. This has really been a fruitful year for our organization and we owe much of it to the generosity of some of Jacksonville's foundations. I am reminded of the words of a wise man who once said, "Alone we can do so little - together we can do so much."

That is why this quarter's newsletter spotlights two wonderful entities: The Fanny Landwirth Foundation and The Delores Barr Weaver Foundation. They have reinforced two of Aging True's programs this year, namely, our downtown Cathedral Café congregate meal site and our RAPPJax program. The commitment they have made to Aging True and the Jacksonville community is inspiring and they have my deep thanks.

As the holiday season begins, please keep this in mind and give back to Jacksonville’s community this year!

Most Sincerely,

Teresa K. Barton
25th Annual Golf Classic Event Volunteers Give RELIEF

As another year goes by, we would like to say “Thank you!” to our organization’s staff, RELIEF volunteers, and all others for their tireless aid to their community and Aging True. Their helping hands and comforting smiles have and will continue to engage and support seniors in our community.

Aging True Receives $10,000 Grant for the Cathedral Café!
The Fanny Landwirth Foundation recently awarded Aging True with a grant to help supplement our downtown congregate meal site, the Cathedral Café. The Cathedral Café serves as a source of a free hot, nutritious meal for residents of the Cathedral Tower residences and local senior community. With this grant, the Cathedral Café will be able to increase the number of meals served and thereby help more seniors maintain a healthy diet and ongoing source of socialization.

Thank you to The Fanny Landwirth Foundation for supporting the health needs of seniors in Jacksonville!

25th Annual Golf Classic Benefiting Meals on Wheels

A Successful Swing Against Senior Hunger

Our 25th Annual Golf Classic was a smashing success this year, thanks to efforts from our planning committee, staff, volunteers, and the staff at Hidden Hills Country Club. This year, we hosted our first Swing on By cocktail party, where we celebrated our annual Golf Classic with old supporters and new, including Jacksonville Jaguars’ own Bryan Anger and his partner, Kelly Pray.

It was wonderful to see our long time supporters, along with a few fresh faces, having fun with their coworkers, friends and family, all in the name of fighting senior hunger.

With everyone’s help, our 25th Annual Golf Classic and Swing on By party raised a combined total of $87,686 for our Meals on Wheels program, which provides daily nutrition to more than 800 seniors in Duval County.

Jaguar player Bryan Anger and his teammates came out to golf and show their support. We cannot express our thanks to the Jaguars for joining us and especially to Bryan Anger, who, at the eleventh hour, stepped up to champion our Meals on Wheels program and host our event.

Another big thank you goes out to our corporate volunteers from Walgreens and Owen & Associates, who stayed with us throughout the day, as well as Aging True’s own RELIEF volunteers. A final thank you to all our sponsors and players. We appreciate everyone’s support and look forward to seeing everyone again next year!

Aging True Receives $150,000 Grant for RAPPJax!

Aging True’s Relatives as Parents Program of Jacksonville, (RAPPJax) is honored to be supported by a grant from the Delores Barr Weaver Fund which will help fund the program for the next three years. The RAPPJax program delivers training, support groups, transportation, stipends for children’s summer camps and more to grandparents and caregivers above the age of 55 who care for family members under the age of 18.

Thank you to the Delores Barr Weaver Fund for your support of seniors and their children in Jacksonville’s community!
